Marketing Products

Description

Intergraph uses state-of-the-art commercial printing presses from Shinohara, Fuji and Heidelberg and calibrates them daily for colour that's bright, sharp and accurate.

Of Course, there's more to great printing than just great equipment - you have to know how to use it. Intergraph's plants are staffed to getting your job printed right the first time.

Need your print marketing materials in a hurry? At Intergraph, many of our products, including brochures, flyers and die-cut stickers, are available with one-day super-rush printing. To save even more time, we automatically print your products at the East Coast, West Coast or Midwest commercial printing plant that's closest to you.
